

"SLAVES OF THE MINE"

Domestic Story of the Anthracite Coal Regions Will Be Presented at Grand Opera House.

"Slaves of the Mine" has entered upon its fourth successful season. Probably no venture has been received more enthusiastically by the press. It is a domestic story of the anthracite regions by C. E. Callahan, who wrote "Fog's Ferry," "Coon Hollow," etc., and Daniel L. Hall, author of "The Parish Priest." The papers in Pittsburgh, Providence, Philadelphia, Cincinnati, Chicago and other cities were a unit in its praise, and there was the same unanimity in the New York press when the play was produced at the Star theatre in that city. To quote all the good things were impossible. The Herald called it "as good as anything appearing here this season." The Times, "Two big audiences gave it the endorsement of unqualified enthusiasm." Journal (Alan Dale) (A strong play, interestingly worked out." World, "Admits of much fine scenery, which was taken full advantage of by the management."

"Slaves of the Mine" comes to the Traders Grand opera house one night only, Thursday, December 8.

An Epidemic of Puckered Lips.

There has been an epidemic in the wake of Miss Bob White which resembles the deadly work of the kissing-bug. But the Hobsonian insect is not to blame for the present malady, but the original composer, named Willard Spencer, whose brilliant and catchy music in Miss Bob White has set more lips a pucker than any other opera recorded to date. It is looked for appearance at the Traders Grand opera house soon.

"THE PEDDLER"

An Excellent Comedy Drama by Hal Reid Will Appear at the Opera House On December 3.

Sullivan, Harris & Woods' production of "The Peddler," an excellent comedy drama by Hal Reid, will be the attraction at the Traders Grand opera house on Saturday, Dec. 3, matinee and night. The scenes of the play are laid in New York City, and the various incidents in the metropolis are based upon life in the metropolis. From the rise of the curtain until the final fall the interest of the auditor never flags, and pathetic scenes and startling climaxes pass in rapid succession. The principal role, that of Abraham Jacobson, will be enacted by Sam Thorne, the well known Hebrew comedian.

All lovers of high class melodrama, with elaborate stage mountings, to excite the eye, will enjoy this production. The play is universally acknowledged to be the best play of its kind ever written by a playwright.

A DOMESTIC COMEDY

Of the Highest Rank is What "The Missouri Girl," Which Comes to the Traders Grand Soon, Is Claimed To Be.

Dramatic critics unanimously agree that "The Missouri Girl" stands first among domestic comedies. The New York Telegraph pronounces it "one of the best written comedies ever seen in New York." The New York World calls it a "good play," and adds that the production includes "an unusually clever lot of people."

The Chicago Chronicle, as well as the News, Record-Herald and Tribune, strongly endorse the production. The St. Louis Globe-Democrat pronounced the company "exceedingly clever," the Times-Star of the same city says "play and company made a decided hit." The Toledo News was quite enthusiastic in its praise and says it is "a clean, wholesome, life-provoking play, which is a credit to the Traders Grand opera house."

SAM THORNE IN "THE PEDDLER."

Pittsburg, the Dispatch, Post and Times do not hesitate to endorse it. It is the same in smaller cities.

If newspaper praise is a criterion by which to judge an attraction "The Missouri Girl" will easily be the comedy treat of the season. It comes to the Traders Grand Opera house soon.

BETTER THAN A VACATION

We Guarantee That Recall Mucin-Tone Will Give You Vigorous, Buoyant Health.

Many, many times you have heard the doctor say:
"What you really need is a rest and a change. Go away for a few weeks (or months) and you'll soon pick up and be yourself again."
Good advice! But how many can follow it?

When you can afford it you cannot spare the time, and when you have the time you cannot spare the money. Business, or housework, or children, or duties of one kind or another, keep you pegging away on the daily round. Some plan other than a journey must be suggested, or you must continue to plod along feeling so tired and worn out that your only desire is to lie down and sleep—to sleep for hours and hours and hours.

But sleep—that is restful sleep—is impossible, even at night. You toss about hour after hour, and though you finally doze away, it is to awake in the morning as tired and as played out as ever.

MARY CAMPBELL.

"Well, there is another plan that will build up your system, and restore you to buoyant vigor. It is the 'Recall Mucin-Tone Plan'—a tablespoonful before each meal. Mrs. Campbell tried it. Here is what she says:

"A severe fall, from the effects of which I never fully recovered, left me in a condition of great weakness. Every little change of air or draft affected my throat and nasal passages. My stomach troubled me. I was nervous and sleepless. I was recommended to take Recall Mucin-Tone for the catarrhal trouble. To my great surprise and gratification, I found that as the catarrhal symptoms disappeared by the use of Recall Mucin-Tone, my general health began to show a marked improvement. Recall Mucin-Tone not only cured my catarrh but restored me to sound health, so that I could sleep well and enjoy life. Please accept my thanks for your good medicine."

Claremont Ave., Montclair, N. J.

There are two kinds of catarrh. The "acute," that with which you are familiar, and the "chronic"—the inflammation and congestion of the mucous membrane of the stomach, intestines, liver, kidneys, bladder and pelvis. Nine of ten people who are weak, worn out, run down, who have no appetite, can't sleep and feel generally miserable, owe their trouble to this class of catarrh.

Recall Mucin-Tone works through the blood vessels, going direct to the affected membranes, driving out the poisons, healing the sore surfaces, revitalizing the blood and building up the body. Its action is prompt and positive. The first dose will brace you up, while from three weeks' to six weeks' treatment is guaranteed to effect a complete cure.

Try it. If you are not satisfied with the result we will give you back your money.
